BADLY HURT.

Fireman Dunnington Knocked From the Cab of a Moving Locomotive. C. J. Dunnington, the popular B. &

S. W. fireman on the branch between here and Parkersburg, was seriously if not fatally hurt while on duty Saturday morning.

The accident occurred at the west end of the bridge at Belpre. The train -when you get it here Popular prices | leaned out over the side of the tender, and while in this position and the Putnam train running moderately fast, his Street head struck a target pole standing near

He was carried to the train and made as comfortable as possible, and on the arrival here was taken to his room at Dr. Dorr's, West Side, where very small showing for oil. medical assistance was rendered and efforts made to restore him to consciousness.

at midnight he had been conscious for a few minutes at a time on several occasions, with caances in his favor for recovery.

Mr. Dunnington's home is in Athens county, near Utley. He is about 23 years of age and one of the most popular of the trainmen on ne branch. His comrades all deplore the accident

What Do They Mean?

On several occasions residents of the ipper part of the city have been called o the door in the evening by a ring or knock to find a neatly dressed man walting to ask direction to some numoer on the same street. Usually the number he asks for is that of a vacant lot, but of course no one thinks of that at the time and on asking the man who lives there, he makes some evasive answer. On being pressed for an answer he will usually give a name, but there is never anyone by the name

Rice and Barton's Extravaganza Co. Rice & Barton were the first to see the value of burlesquing Greater New York's Coney Island and its famed Tenderloin region. They have a cinch on both and are amply protected by U. S. copyright in the shape of 'Naughty Coney Island" and "Mand, of the Tenderloin." The latter is a most gorgeous curtain-raiser produced with a wealth of new costumes, special scenery, colored light effects and new properties. "Naughty Coney Island" is entirely renewed for this season and in both burlesques we have laughter unlimited; opportunities are unbounded for fun-making and the famous localities are burlesqued to a finish. vaudeville, the craze of the day, is by no means neglected. that go down each year to premature graves, one-seventh are the victims of this relentless enemy.

There is a prompt and practically unfailing cure for this awful disease within the means of the poorest. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures of per ceut. of all cases of consumption. It cures bronchitis, asthma, laryngitis, lingering cough, spitting of blood, weak lungs, throat and nasal troubles and all diseases of the air-passages. It acts directly on the lungs and mucous membranes of the air-passages through the blood, allaying in-passages through the blood, allaying in-passages through the blood, allaying in-dammation, building up healthy tissues and driving out all impurities and disease germs. It whets the appetite, makes the digestion perfect and the liver active. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. A sufferer does not have to take these assertions on trust. Thousands have testified to their recovery under this marvelous medicine after all hope was gone. Copies of their letters, with names and addresses, may be had by writing for them.
